Overview

Do you need temporary payroll cover? Has your Payroll Manager gone off sick or left the business? SD Worx provide Senior Payroll Consultants; offering a service designed to meet the needs of organisations that are looking for on-site interim payroll management, on a retained basis, without employing a permanent payroll professional.

If you are moving to a managed service, our Payroll Consultants can process and support operation of a new system before, during and after implementation.

In selecting SD Worx to provide your On-site Payroll Support, you will have access to an experienced and qualified Senior Payroll Consultant for a pre-determined number of days per year. Without impacting your headcount, you could reduce the need for costly overheads and hidden costs; and you will benefit from a consistent, dedicated and focused practitioner who understands your business, people, culture and core activities. SD Worx will select a Consultant to partner with your business based on skills, experience, sector knowledge and overall organisational 'fit'.

We select only the best Consultants to partner with SD Worx, and we ensure that they have the necessary skills and experience to support our clients.
