This note gives an overview of the HRevolution 12 Release which consists of HRe12.1

Release date: March 2013.

Overview

Real Time Information

This release contains details of the additional data items required for the operation of PAYE in real time, the HMRC programme referred to more generally as RTI. Most of these items relate to unusual cases or are optional items. PLEASE NOTE: - although this is a mandatory change for all employers you must register with Ceridian if you require us to operate RTI on your behalf, you do have other options. If you have not registered, or are not sure, please contact your support desk as soon as possible, we cannot automatically assume that you wish us to operate RTI for you.

More information can be found at <http://www.ceridian.co.uk/rti>

ASPP Partner Details

In order to comply with RTI legislation, details of the partner of an employee who takes Additional Paternity Leave involving ASPP must be written to payroll for processing

Partner details are now written to payroll in the following scenarios:

- Additional Paternity Leave is approved.
- Amendment of Additional Paternity Leave date.
- Deletion of Additional Paternity Leave.
- Amendment of ASPP partner
- Amendment of partner's first name.
- Amendment of partner's last name.
- Amendment of partner's middle name.
- Amendment of partner's NI number.
- Amendment of partner's relationship.
- Removing an existing partner.
- End Additional Paternity Leave.
- Amendment of Additional Paternity Leave end date.

Details of the employee's partner will be taken from their list of dependants. The existing screens for entering and maintaining Additional Paternity Leave have been modified to allow the user to select a partner from their list of dependants.

Hours Worked

Hours worked data is written to payroll in the following scenarios:

- Adding a new salary history record.
- Editing the hours per week within an existing salary history record.
- Editing the start date of an existing salary history record.
- Removing the end date of an existing salary history record.
- Applying an end date to an existing salary history record.
- Editing the end date of an existing salary history record.

Salary history details are maintained via the Salary Details tab on the Employee HR Details screen.
